

Workshop

The Challenge of Deep Complexity in Social Science: Experience and Modelling

May 11st 2007

Department of Economics M. Fanno, University of Padua
Via del Santo, 33

Programme

14.00 – 14.15

Welcome

Stefano Solari – Introduction: Complexity and the theory of knowledge in Political Economy

14.00 – 16.00 Focal Sessions

Robert Delorme (Université de Versailles, Saint Quentin-en-Yvelines) – The Challenge of Deep Complexity in Social Science: Experience and Modelling

Mauro Lombardi (University of Florence) - 'The study of knowledge and information in the firm'

16.00 – 16.30 Break for coffee

16.30 – 18.00

Roundtable

Roberto Grandinetti (University of Padua) - 'Complexity in business studies'

Mauro Lombardi (University of Florence) - 'Complexity and the study of information in the firm'

Francesca Gambarotto (University of Padua) - 'Territory and Complexity'

Marco Rangone, (University of Padua) – 'The interaction of the economist's and actor's form of knowledge'

Gianfranco Tuset (University of Padua) – 'Economic dynamics in the history of economic thought'

Mariangela Guidolin (University of Padua) – 'The logistical diffusion and agent based modelling'

Stefano Solari, (University of Padua) – 'Complexity and comparative institutional analysis'

18.00

Robert Delorme – Concluding remarks